

5.22.2020

Dear Charter Arts Families:

We hope this communication finds you well as we approach the final weeks of the school year, and we hope that you have a relaxing holiday weekend. As a reminder, we are off on Monday, May 25th. There will be no assignments due or faculty office hours in observance of Memorial Day.

This week we celebrated our graduating seniors by launching the artistic major Class of 2020 Senior Tributes! Just in case you missed them, we thought we would reshare these with all of you. Click on the image below to view each department slideshow.

Senior "Graduation Boxes"

In collaboration with Christmas City Studios, we will be delivering several graduation items to each member of the class of 2020 within the next week! This graduation box will include your cap, gown, diploma cover, a personalized banner, and your first Charter Arts Alumni swag. Please be on the lookout for this box as Christmas City Studios will be hand delivering these to your doorstep!

Senior class tee shirts

Senior tee shirts are now available in the school store. Look for the 'Senior Class of 2020' link on the left side of the screen. There are 9 designs to choose from (mostly designed by our students)! The back of the shirt features the names of all 147 graduates!

A reminder about Student/School Property Return & Pick Up...

On June 4th and 5th, students must return all remaining school-issued materials including, but not limited to: textbooks, independent reading books, theater library plays, music folders, calculators, technology, elevator fobs,
